Intern Researches Impact of Grief and Loss

Kaley Nicholson, CFLE Intern, surveyed CFLE support group participants in an effort to learn more about the non-emotional effects of grief and loss. Her findings, which are slated for continued research by other FHSU faculty members, shines light on significant grief issues in the Hays community, such as economic loss and decreased work place performance.

Healing Kids' Hearts

The fourth annual retreat at Sternberg Museum for children ages 7-12 was again a great success! Exceeding the current limit of 20 children, 24 children were served in 2019 due to critical needs. Positive evaluations by parents and volunteers affirmed this event was helpful to the families. Most affirming of all was the children's smiles and the healing stories of their loved ones that they shared throughout the day. Sincere thanks to volunteers and supporters who made donations of time, talents and dollars. We especially want to acknowledge Ann and Hyle Hugunin Hays Memorial Chapel, new CFLE and Healing Kids Hearts sponsors. Thank you for making a difference in our community!

Save the date of March 28, 2020, for next year's event.
